PROFESSIONAL CERTIFICATION DESIGNATIONS

Examples of individuals joining the International Real Estate Institute include: Real Estate Consultants, Property Managers, Real Estate Investors, Real Estate Appraisers and International Property Consultants.

RPM – Registered Property Manager

This designation is offered to property management professionals throughout the world.

SCV – Senior Certified Valuer

This designation is offered to real estate professionals practicing the valuation of real estate.

CIC – Certified International Consultant

This designation is offered to professionals with a broad range of expertise on international real estate investment, development, valuation, and property management.

RIM – Registered International Member

A designation offered to those individuals involved with finance, development, and investment of real estate.

Affiliate Member

Our Affiliate Members are those interested in International Real Estate but are ineligible to become a designated member. These would include educators, students, and businessmen interested in the International Market, and others wishing to keep abreast of International real estate trends.

Leadership Opportunities

Take advantage of numerous opportunities to gain distinction in the Institute, including serving on an International Real Estate Committee or Council, teaching a seminar on the local level, or writing a paper for the International Real Estate Journal. Members of the International Real Estate Institute are also given the opportunity to participate on several committees and special projects.

International Real Estate Institute